EXPERIANCE

Freelance work

I started doing freelance work in the begining of 2023. This has helped me advanced as a developer, to the point where others will pay for my skills and experiance. you can see some of the work i've done on my portfolio

Personal Projects

PSN ++

sony does not have a way for a user to view their PSN friends status on desktop platforms, so with PSN ++ you can view your friends online status, trophie status, current game, and (if shared) personal information

Learning Hub

its hard learning and practicing data structures and algorithms . With this resource you can learn them and find related videos, as well as keep track of your leetcode progress.
